

MARIE CLAIRE May 2006

LUCIO SALVATORE

STYLE: Classic with a twist

BECAUSE NOW 31 years old (he flanked Mario Testino first as a model, then as a photographer) he is one of the few Italian artists (successful) that we export.

Moreover, he gives a really beautiful impression. He quotes Greek Philosopher Anaximander and he photographs the collision of blood and fire with a technique that he calls Photomenology. He does not name his artworks he just numbers them.

HE SAYS: "I live between Brazil and New York but I was born in Cassino.

Am I single? Well, go to my biography page on my website

www.luciosalvatore.com" – I went and discovered that it was a joke: it is a blank page!.

NEXT "to present Photomenology in New York and maybe fill that white space on my web site.
