

Press release for Salone del mobile 2009

Italian Artist Lucio Salvatore exhibits his artworks in the first 7 star "temporary Hotel" ever built, during 2009 furniture and design fair in Milan

Salvatore is invited by celebrity Designer Samuele Mazza to exhibit his artworks at the "Visionnaire Guest Philosophy" presentation in Milano and by talented interior decorator Claudia Pelizzari to speak about "art and Beauty" in Brescia

New York, NY - April 20, 2009 – Salvatore will exhibit from April 22 to 27 2009, in Milan a selection of commissioned artworks inside the famous Visionnaire Design store, an historical movie theater, that, in occasion of the design week, will be transformed by the genius of Samuele Mazza, in a fantastic luxurious resort: From 11 am to 11 pm, clients and visitors will enjoy the hospitality of a 7 stars "temporary hotel", the first ever built, where Salvatore's works will be exhibited.

In the same week the Italian Artist is invited by Claudia Pelizzari, (voted among the top interior decorators worldwide by the Andrew Martin Interior Design review), to speak about the subject of Beauty, together with Art critic Philippe Daverio during the exclusive cocktail reception organized by Archiglam in Brescia.